If the user has uploaded an image in his or her profile then I want to run a function when someone posts in that particular post. But how do I check if they have uploaded an image or not? A: This query: `SELECT * FROM wp_users WHERE user_nicename = '$my_username'` will give you the user id and the user_nicename from every active user. If this returns 0 rows, then the user does not have a user profile image. Otherwise, you could check wp_usermeta table. Debug
